Clinical Education Experience Location and Timeline Expectations for Programs in the Covey College of Allied Health Professions

Additionally, students may choose inical site that is outside of the area designated as geographically accessible because the softeers a unique experience and or is geographically located in an area desiration desiration of the such cases, approval of the site and supervisor must be gained from the students director of clinical education clinical coordinator field or coordinator.

date of this experience may b delayedtoute requirements of the clinical site.

Programs in the Covey College of Attiend th Professions that include clinical education components are in compliance whether the Department of Education Financial Responsibility, Administrative Capablity, Certification Procedures, Ablity to Benefit rule (At ) you have questions abut this rule and or the compliance of the program whether the rule, please remout to your Department Chair.