The Department of Political Science and Criminal Justice tathe University of South Alabama invites applications for a full-time (9 month), tenure rack Assistant Pofessor position in Public Administration to begin August 15, 2025. A earned Ph.D. in Politica Cience, Public Administration, Public Policy, or aclosely related subfield (e.g., Health carand/or Epidemiology within Public Policy, Disaster Management within Public Administration, etc.) is required at the time of appointment. ABD currently near the completion of the degree are welcometo apply, but an earned Ph.D. is required at the time of appointment.

 Mobile and its surroundings are a similarly thriving environment that provides ample opportunities for collaboration. Located near some of the country's best beaches, home of the original Mardi Gras, and known for amazing seafood, the city is a bustling community that is growing economically, socially, and culturally.

To apply for initial consideration, please send the following documents: a letter of application, CV, unofficial transcripts, and a writing sample to Dr. Thomas Shaw at tshaw@southalabama.edu