SUBJECT: Advising Leadership Committee 2023-2025

This memorandum is to inform you that the Advising Leadership Committee will meet during the 2023-2024 academic year. Catherine Preston will serve as Chair and will convene the first meeting.

Committee Charge: Effective academic advising requires coordination and collaborative partnerships among all units of the university. These partnerships foster ongoing communication and promote resource sharing. They involve frequent and intentional exchanges of information and ideas and they advance student success through innovative academic advising across all units.

As an Advising Leadership Group, we can set aspirational standards for professional advising advisors to evaluate student success, provide the student experience, by leveraging best practices and NACADA's life competencies. We will focus on the following areas: educational and organizational changes at South - built upon a foundation of evidence-based decision making, planning and implementation.

This group will meet once a month for discussions of new policies, advising assessments, new advisor training and professional development opportunities, to share experiences and...

Thank you for your willingness to serve on the very important committee. If you are unable to serve, please notify me as soon as possible.
