

Guide to the Clara Schumann Club Records

Descriptive Summary:

Creator: Clara Schumann Club

Title: Clara Schumann Club Records

Dates: 1894- 2004

Quantity: 6.1 linear feet

Abstract: Scrapbooks, programs, and minutes.

Accession: 95- 09- 293 ; 293- 1995

Organizational History :

The Clara Schumann Music Club was organized in 1894 in Mobile, Alabama, by a group of educated, middle - and upper -class women who wanted to maintain a high musical standard in their own work and promote and encourage the culture of musical art in the area. In the beginning the club emphasized piano quartet work and later vocal music. The club took on minutes of the club's meetings for the years 1894 to 1990, as well as various issues of the Clavier, the American Music Teacher, and Piano Guild Notes. In addition, the collection contains yearbooks of the Mobile Teacher's Association and miscellaneous correspondence and financial records. There are also assorted programs and yearbooks for the years 1899 to 2004, and one music book. Materials are added to this collection periodically. Related material: Katherine Crampton Cochrane Papers, 95 -09- 291 .

Arrangement:

Scrapbooks, minutes, and programs are arranged chronologically.

Access Restrictions:

This material is open to research.

Preferred Citation:

Clara Schumann Club Records, The Doy Leale McCall Rare Book and Manuscript Library,

Programs and Yearbooks (See also, Box 2, Folder 33)

1899- 2002

Box 5

Scrapbooks (See also Box 1)

1950s - 1990s

1990s - 2004

Scrapbook, 1976- 1980 (oversized, not boxed)